REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

A Convention to elect four delegates to the Republican State Convention, to be held at Jackson, May 16th, will be held at the Court House, Grand Haven. On the evening of Wednesday, May 8th, 1892, at 7:15. At this Convention a new County Committee may also be elected and such other business as may properly come before the Convention. As this Convention is to have its bearing on the Presidential contest, a full representation of the Cities and Townships of the county is requested. The apportionment of the delegates, based on the last Republican vote for Governor, is as follows:

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

A republican State Convention, to appoint twenty-two delegates to represent this State in the National Republican Convention, to be held at Philadelphia, June 5th, 1892, to nominate candidates for President and Vice President, and also to elect a republican State Central Committee, will be held in the city of Jackson, at Union Hall, Thursday, the 16th day of May next, at 11 o'clock A. M.

The several counties will be entitled to two delegates for each Representative in the lower branch of the State Legislature; and every organized county having no representation will be entitled to one delegate.

By the resolution of 1888, no delegate will be entitled to a seat who does not reside in the county he represents. Signed by the Republican State Central Committee.
Lansing, March 12, 1892.

THE GUBERNATORIAL QUESTION.

We learn that the Grand Rapids Eagle is urging the name of Ex Mayor Aldrich of that city as the one to be considered by delegates from this part of the State in connection with the Gubernatorial nomination. Now while we are willing to concede to Mr. Aldrich all the ability necessary to fill such a position with honor to himself and creditable to his constituency, yet we hesitate to accept the proposition for various reasons.

Shall we be consistent with ourselves if we ignore the claims of men whose honorable lives are a part of the history of our State, men whose many years of experience in legislative life, (and against whom no charge of inefficiency or dishonesty can be entertained) which qualify them for the highest honor the people of our State can bestow, men to whom the party of this State owe much for its present strength and thorough organization, whose personal sacrifices are part of our political history. Again we ask. Shall we ignore the claims the people have upon these brave men and true for the purpose of tickling the ambition of those of whom it can only be said, they have lived for themselves, accumulated large fortunes and are popular at home?

Should not the qualifications of Statesmanship guide us somewhat in our selection of a candidate for a position requiring a full knowledge of the principles of legislation, of Constitutional law and government? And, who so well qualified as they who have learned from experience the very principles which would secure to us all the advantages to be derived from such an election?

That our present Governor possesses all the qualifications necessary to an economical and honorable administration of our State affairs, is proven from the history of his four years service.—Our State finances were never in a more prosperous condition. Our position in the union of States never more honorable than now.

Our Reform Schools are Standing Monuments of pride and satisfaction. Our charitable institutions, the glory of our State. Our Schools of learning prospering beyond all precedent, our credit abroad second to no State in the Union, our public debt rapidly diminishing. Then, while everything is so prosperous and the present incumbent without spot or blemish, why seek a change at all? we do not care so much for rotation in office or location of candidates as we do for the right man in the right place, and when the people are satisfied as they now are that they have an honest administration, they will be loth to yield to politicians merely to gratify local pride, preference, or prejudice.

But if the Eagle is desirous of securing a candidate from that city in whom the people of Western Michigan and of the whole State are more acquainted with, and would have the same confidence in, as to honesty and ability as they now have in Gov. Baldwin, let him hoist the name of Hon. Thos. D. Gilbert, than whom no man in this part of the State is more honorably or better known, a gentleman of experience extensive travel and research, thoroughly identified with the Republican party, and with the growth and prosperity of Michigan. Such a nomination would probably meet with a hearty response from Western Michigan, and one far more likely to secure the energetic support of the party.

In our opinion there are other gentlemen upon whom the people have claims in preference to the Eagle's candidate, and probably we shall hear from their friends as the day approaches for a decision.

A NEW PROJECT.

A project is being talked up in this city by some of our prominent business men which if executed, would have a tendency to make this city the place of fashionable resort for the elite of Western Michigan. The project is yet in infancy, nevertheless strange things occur every day which originated in the brain of some enthusiastic admirer, and perhaps this scheme, with proper encouragement may result beneficially to our city and be the means of giving pleasure to the weary man of business, the invalid, and those who seek consolation from natural scenery.

The project is to build a drive-way from this city to Lake Michigan along the south bank of Black Lake; and at or near the outlet, to build a Hotel and pleasure ground for the accommodation of guests who might seek recreation in the pure refreshing breeze from Lake Michigan, and at some convenient point on the Lake have the proper facilities for bathing, fishing &c. Also to secure all the requirements for pleasure sailing by having yachts and row-boats; as the circumstances might seem to require. Certainly if such a project should meet with sufficient encouragement as to secure its adoption, it would tend largely to increase our influence as a city of resort for people who have money to spend, and do so, commensurate with the pleasure to be derived. We think the project worthy to be canvassed and early to be acted upon.

THE IMPEACHMENT.

The State Senate as a court of impeachment in the case of State Land Commissioner Charles A. Edmonds assembled at Lansing on the 11th inst. The House Managers Messrs. I. R. Grosvenor, B. W. Huston Jr. and Lyman Cochrane exhibited to the Senate articles of impeachment, which were read by their Chairman. The articles are eleven in number, and contain various charges relative to public lands. Colluding with certain parties to defraud the honest settlers upon our State lands; withholding from sale large tracts of land with the intent to cheat and defraud bona fide purchasers and actual settlers; buying and selling swamp land "scrip" to the damage of the Primary School Fund and the Treasury of the State.

"Selling valuable information contained in his office to, and acting as agent for, certain land dealers thus giving such dealers an undue advantage over others seeking the entry of lands at his office.

"With changing moneys received by him by virtue of his office into swamp land scrip, retaining said moneys for his own use and benefit.

"Of publishing a certain anonymous obscene paper, containing impure scandalous, and obscene matters manifestly unbecoming the dignity of his office; of mailing for delivery said obscene publication in violation of the laws of the United States. Of being drunk or so affected by his drinking of intoxicating liquors as to disgrace his office and unfit him for the discharge of his official duties, and of committing adultery, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided"

On effort was made for a postponement until the 15th of May but the 30th inst was the day finally determined upon for the trial.

RIVER AND HARBOR APPROPRIATIONS.

The House Committee reported the following appropriations for Michigan Harbors on the 5th inst. The report was read twice and referred to Committee on Appropriations.

For the improvement of New Buffalo harbor, $5,000; Aux Becs Scies, $10,000; Manistee, $10,000; Pere Marquette, $10,000; Pentwater, $10,000; White River, $10,000; Mnekegon, $10,000; Grand Haven, $20,000; Black Lake, (Holland), $20,000; Saugatuck, $15,000; South Haven, $12,000; St. Joseph, $3,000; St. Mary's Falls Canal, $300,080; Cheboygan, $3,000; Au Sable river, $10,000; Lake Huron harbor of Refuge, $100,000; Black River (St. Clair River St. Clair Flats, $4,000.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The conference here yesterday between the leaders of the Cincinnati party and the Democrats resulted in a final agreement on Davis and Curtin as a Presidential ticket. The Democrats made the concession of taking two so-called Republicans, instead of the complete Columbus labor ticket, after a protracted discussion. The Democrats have pledged themselves that Davis and Curtin will be endorsed by the Democratic Convention, and that the Democratic party will give them 95 per cent. of the Democratic vote. George H. Pendleton, Dan Voorhees, ex-Senator Doolittle, and George Morgan spoke for the Democratic party. Col. W. M. Grosvenor denounces Davis, and pronounces for Trumbull. The Democrats discountenance Grosvenor. The Greeley pronunciamento on the tariff is considered a practical denial of his endorsement of the Missouri platform. Hon. William McClellan, M. C. from Pennsylvania, has been agreed upon as the fusion candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania at this conference.

THE SITUATION.

Now that the Spring Elections are all over and generally satisfactory to the Republican party, but little interest is remaining politically except in watching the movements of partisans relative to the forth coming Liberal Republican Convention called to meet in Cincinnati May 1st. If we were to believe the Democratic Press, we should be inclined to despair of a Republican party triumph next fall. Some of our Democratic friends very kindly inform us that Senator so and so will attend the convention and will preside over the deliberations, another one will condescend to tell us confidentially, of course, that a very distinguished General will be present; to keep order we presume. Another one; that nearly all leading men in the Republican party have become disgusted with the Grant administration and propose to withdraw from its support. Of course this information is given us gratis with the best of intention. We certainly should not have so much confidence in the Democratic tenderness exhibited if we could see any evidence that they mean business for themselves. Their leaders are watching the opportunity to fall in the line of march and keep step to the music of the next campaign at other expense than their own. It is not presumed that the committee of seventy was assured of the great loss, they were inflicting upon the Democratic party in correcting the abuses heaped upon the Treasury of New York, and we may say that, probably, the sudden desire for honesty and disinterestedness manifested by the leaders of that party did not originate from a desire to add their own usefulness, simply to strengthen the Republican party and the administration of Gen. Grant. They have succeeded admirably, but it remains to be seen how much will have been accomplished by their ceaseless efforts to strengthen the Cincinnati convention. We apprehend they will be left out of that convention to perish by the suicidal hand which has so long been hanging over them.

NEW YORK, April 11.—An immense meeting was held at Brooklyn Academy of Music last night to endorse Grant and Colfax. Henry Ward Beecher delivered a splendid oration occupying an hour and a quarter of time, supporting the President as a successful administrator, and more likely to rectify errors than other man now prominently before the people.

Friends of the administration are jubilant to-day over the news from Pennsylvania and Massachusetts. While these conventions place the renomination of Gen. Grant beyond a doubt, they imply a possible change in the Vice Presidency. Mr. Colfax makes no secret of his readiness, if it shall be deemed desirable, of retiring from the Vice Presidency, and will only consent to run for the nomination if his doing so will add strength to the party.

The Senate has passed a bill designed to benefit homestead settlers who were burned out in Michigan, Wisconsin, and Minnesota. The bill prescribes that all who suffered by fire in these States, and the heirs of those who lost their lives in the conflagrations shall have until the 1st January 1873 to rebuild on and reoccupy the land and when the claimants shall prove up their claims such period shall be included in the five years required by law.

A serious fire occurred at Kalamazoo on the 9th inst. Four buildings were destroyed, loss 10,000 dollars.

DEATH OF PAULUS DEN BLEYKER.

In our Yesterday's issue of this paper, we made a brief announcement of the death of Mr. Den Bleyker, and promised to speak further in regard to the deceased. In fulfillment of that promise, we have here brought together a few of the leading facts in the life of the gentleman who has been so suddenly taken from our midst.

Mr. Den Bleyker was born on the island of Texel, Holland, and spent the best of his life in that place. He early engaged in active business, and by frugality and industry, saved means sufficient to enable him to come with his family to this country. Coming almost directly to Kalamazoo, after his arrival in New York, he cast about for a farm upon which he could live and enjoy himself. In 1847 he purchased a farm of Epaphroditus Ransom, for $12,000 cash. This sum of money was considered enormous in that early time, and every one who had a farm to sell was looking about for Hollanders that bought for cash.

After possessing this property for some time, he became anxious to rid himself of it. Times were dull, and the chance of becoming richer seemed fast fading away, when a fortunate suggestion was made to him by one of our citizens, that he turn about his residence from where it then was lying at the south end of Burdick St., open up Burdick St. and lay out, his farm in an addition to the village. The suggestion was acted upon; streets were laid out his farm in the south-eastern part of the place, and "Den Bleyker's Addition" became known on the maps of our village. Lots were speedily disposed of, and that portion of Kalamazoo rapidly built up, Burdick street coming in time to be one of our finest thoroughfares. Mr. Den Bleyker showed himself to be a man of enterprise, careful and far-sighted, such a man as it has been for the good of our place to have.

In domestic life he was a kind and affectionate father, ever doing something to make those about him happy, bestowing unexpected gifts in a quiet way. To the people of his own nationality he was ever ready to lend a helping hand, when help was needed. On New Year's Day, for many years past, it was his custom to have young Holland children assemble at his residence, wishing them a "Happy New Year," and bestowing on them some pleasing memento. We know him to have been a steadfast christian, thoroughly religious, and a constant student of the Scriptures.

We understand he leaves a will bequeathing his property, consisting largely of real estate, upon his wife and children. He died, as our readers have already been informed, at 2 P. M., April 8th, at his residence in this village. He was in his 68th year, and had nearly all his life enjoyed good health. His sudden death was a great shock to his family, struck down as he was, a man of full vigor, and about whom no disease was suspected to be lurking. He leaves a wife and three children, and a large circle of friends to mourn his departure.

We clip the above from the Kalamazoo Gazette of April 12th. Mr. Den Bleyker was one of this city's warmest friends, as was evidenced by his great liberality during the period of our suffering by the fire. He has many friends in this city who will hold his memory in kindly remembrance for his many christian virtues, exemplified during his life. His loss will be deeply lamented by his friends here, and the poor of all classes wherever he was known.

COMPILED LAWS.—The first volume of the Compiled Laws is now ready for sale by the State Treasurer. The price of the work complete (in two vols.) is seven dollars, on receipt of the above named price the Treasurer will deliver the first volume: and the remaining one as soon as issued, probably about the first of June next.

STATE ITEMS.

A Grand Rapids salesman labored three hours to sell a lady a bill of goods amounting to thirty-five cents, which she left to be sent to her residence.

James Walker, of Plainwell, has been fined $20 for selling liquor to minors, and allowing them to play cards in his saloon.

The Kalamazoo papers reports a case or two of spotted fever. This dreaded disease seems to be working westward. It has been raging fearfully in some parts of New York for several months.

A deputy U. S. Marshall has served the necessary papers on the Supervisor of Allegan for the payment of $50,000 aid voted by that town to the Kalamazoo, Allegan & Grand Rapids Railroad.

We learn from the Allegan Journal, that on Thursday of last week, Mrs. Ira Chaffee had a serious accident befall her by falling down a stairway head foremost. Mrs. C. broke her nose and mangled her face. She was attended by Dr. Lay and is now doing well.

A day or two since a mother-in-law of Grand Rapids thought she heard hard words between her daughter and her son-in-law, so she tried to see what was going on, through the key-hole. She is using eye-water now. The cause is not wholly unconnected with red pepper.

Local News.

One of the most furious snow storms of the season commenced early Monday morning the 15th inst. It snowed and blowed all day.

Our thanks are due to Hon. T. W. Ferry United States Senator for Congressional Globe, 3d Session, 41st Congress; also to Hon. W. D. Foster and Hon. J. G. Sutherland for valuable documents.

SOMETHING NEW.—A lock on the door of the Chicago & Mich. Lake Shore depot. Station Agent Rose says, any one can get into the waiting-room now without being detained at the door.

We this week publish the call for the Republican County Convention to be held on the 28th of May next at the Court House in Grand Haven. We trust that every town will be fully represented.

The schooner Wollin arrived from Chicago on Thursday last, with a good supply of freight, navigation is fully commenced and we hope the sailing men will prosper in their labor, the coming season.

The Round House of the Chicago & Mich. Lake Shore R. R. is to receive its composition roofing next week. This is probably the commencement of a series of improvements by this company which shall prove a valuable acquisition to our business.

The Black River Highway Bridge is under-going repairs. Street Commissioner Woltman with an eye to durability has been for several days removing old worn out planks and stringers and putting in new, and when he has done with it our friends from the North need fear no danger in crossing it.

There is in this city a great demand for dwelling houses. It is estimated that 100 houses could be rented within the next 30 days. Will not some one who is able, build tenement houses for rent? In our opinion such an investment would equal 20 per cent. interest, clear of taxes and all other expenses.

Mr. Van Zee has commenced rebuilding his store on Eighth Street. A peculiarity of Mr. Van Zee's building is, it was all framed and made ready to be put together in Grand Rapids and shipped to this place by rail. Whether it be less expensive to procure a building ready made, or made to order we have not learned.

SERVED HIM RIGHT.—We learn that Mr. George Baker, fireman on the construction train on the O. & M. L. S. R. R. was discharged from service for using profane language in the Station Building in presence of ladies. This is as it should be, and speaks well for the officers of the road, but why not include in the presence of gentlemen.

ANOTHER BURGLARY.—On Wednesday night last, the Hand-car House belonging to the Lake Shore R. R. Co., was broken into and robbed of a Spencer hunting Rifle, and Colts Revolver belonging to P. Maloy a section foreman. The thief is supposed to be a man who worked for the company a few days, about 5 ft. and 6 inches in height slim built wearing rubber shoes, he has left for the hunting grounds of the North woods.

A large number of buildings are being erected in the south-west part of our city. We notice our old friend C. De Jonge is rebuilding of wood a mansion on the site of his former residence, which was of brick, and was destroyed by fire during the great conflagration of last fall. Many new residences are being built on 12th Street, and being situated on one of the most pleasant streets in the city, cannot fail to become property of great value in a short time.

RAILROAD BONDS—IMPORTANT DECISION OF THE SUPREME COURT.—In the case of the people ex. rel. the Township of Lagrange vs. Victor F. Collier, State Treasurer. Application for mandamus was made to compel the delivery to the Township, of Railroad Bonds deposited with him for delivering to the Railroad Corporation for whose benefit they were issued. The mandamus was granted, and the opinion of Judge Campbell is that all bonds now in the hands of the State Treasurer should be delivered up on the applications of the municipalities issuing them.

Since our article on Harbor Improvement was put in type we have received from our faithful Representative in Congress Hon. W. D. Foster, a full copy of the appropriations bill and find that our Harbor is recommended for $10,000 instead of $20,000. Our thanks are due Mr. Foster for this Document.

The Manistee Times has extended an invitation for the editorial convention to be held at that place on the 11th of June next. A neophyte as we are in the fraternity, perhaps our say will amount to but little, yet we venture to second the motion, and say to the quill drivers, we will fall into the rear ranks, and follow the line of march wherever the majority decide to go, though we should like to visit Manistee.

Messrs P. & A. Steketee wish us to say to their many patrons in this city that after this date they will deliver free to any part of the city all goods purchased at their store. This move indicates business and we think will be very gratifying to their many customers in this city. We hope they will sell wagon loads of goods as they desire to; they do not intend to raise the prices of their goods through the system of free delivery.

PERSONAL.—Hon. Thos. D. Gilbert, Chairman of the Central Relief Committee, Grand Rapids, visited our city yesterday on business connected with the Relief arrangements have been perfected whereby the end of relief work may be considered as not far distant. A final disposition will be decided upon by the Central Committee, relative to the $5000 of which so much has been said of late. Our local committee can not but feel gratified that the end of their labor is soon to be reached.

DECLARING INTENTIONS.—We would remind our foreign born residents who have not declared their intentions of becoming citizens of this country, and who intend to do so, and vote at the next Presidential Election must appear before the County Clerk within the next three weeks. The law requires that a foreigner must declare his intention at least 6 months previous to his offering to vote, we hope all those who intend to vote for Grant will not fail to qualify themselves. Our city committees attention is called to this matter.

STATE MILITIA.—An effort is being made to organize a Company of State Troops. Blanks have been received and are now the hands of our old army friend W. H. Joslin, Esq. The number of men required is 60, they have to sign a petition which is forwarded to the Governor and if accepted by him the members will have to provide themselves with uniforms before they can be mustered into service of the State or armed. The company may adopt such uniform as they may choose. Under the Militia law, the State furnishes arms and equipments, pays a reasonable rent for an armory, and allows fifty dollars per annum to the captain for responsibility and care of arms. This enterprise we would favor, and hope the required number may be found willing to accede to the terms. All such organizations add to our city, strength and reputation, and tend largely toward harmony and unity of purpose. We hope the effort will prove a success.

A Public Improvement.

The Pile Driver is at work at the dock of E. J. Harrington, who is increasing the capacity of his dock, extending it some sixty feet further into the water, which will make it one of the longest docks in Western Michigan. This dock was entirely consumed by the great fire; since which time Mr. Harrington has (previous to the present improvement) built some 220 feet in depth by 90 feet in width, over the ruins of his old dock; fearing the capacity was insufficient for his extensive shipping business, he adds this extension.

Near the outer end he is constructing a warehouse 30x50 feet with 18 feet posts. Everything about the dock is built with a view to strength and durability. The whole area of dockage when completed will be 280 feet in length by 90 feet in width giving a water frontage of 650 feet.

A side track from the Michigan Lake Shore R. R. is laid over the dock, and arrangements perfected that material from any of the Railroads running into this city, may be delivered to boats for any point across the Lake. Certainly Mr. Harrington deserves success, and we predict he will receive a large share of the shipping business of this city.

OUR BAND.—It is gratifying to us, and will no doubt be agreeable to our citizens, to learn that an effort is being made to reorganize our "Silver Cornet Band." The Band having suffered seriously in the loss of instruments and other property by the great fire of last fall, have reduced the number of instruments to eight, and have gathered together all that were saved in whole and in part, and those that could be made of use have been shipped to the manufactory at Boston for repair. It is confidently believed that but two new instruments will have to be purchased, the others can be repaired at slight expense. It is estimated that two hundred dollars will be required to place the Band upon the reorganized plan, ready for action. A proposition to our public spirited citizens is made to aid by donation the necessary amount. The list is open for subscription and can be found at the Store of Joslin & Breyman. We trust that not one of our citizens will refuse to assist in re-establishing this project, many hands make light work; call and add your mite. The band as reorganized and to be conducted, will reflect credit upon its members and prove an honor to our city.

Common Council.

COUNCIL ROOMS. }
HOLLAND, April 12th, 1872.
Council met and was called to order by Mayor Harrington. All the Aldermen were present. On motion the rules were suspended for the evening. The special committee on City Clerk appointment, reported that they had notified Mr. C. F. Post of his appointment, and submitted his acceptance of the same.

On motion it was resolved, that Mr. Post be declared duly appointed as City Clerk to fill vacancy occasioned by the resignation of C. Hofman.

The vote on salary of City Marshal was reconsidered, and on motion was increased to five hundred dollars per year. On motion the Council proceeded to ballot for City Attorney.

The 1st ballot resulted as follows: McBride, 3; blank, 2; Roost, 1; Comstock, 2. After various ballotings for City Attorney without a decision it was moved and seconded that the matter of electing City Attorney be laid upon the table—which was carried.

Petition of T. S. Hansley asking for license to give a Magical entertainment, was granted upon his paying in to the city treasury the sum of five dollars.

Moved and carried unanimously that grading on Eighth Street be confined to the original limits of 66 feet in width.

The Bonds of A. Woltman as City Marshal were presented and approved.

INSURE WITH THE OLD

"North America"

INS. Co. OF PHILADELPHIA, PA.

(ESTABLISHED 1794.)

Why? Because it is the oldest Ins. Co. in the United States.

Because it was the first to pay its Holland losses in Ready Cash.

Because it has paid over $30,000,000 losses.

Because it has a surplus (over and above its debts) of more than two Ins. Co's. in the United States.

Because it has a surplus of more than five times that of all the other Ins. Co's. in the city combined.

For proof, read the (Jan. 1872) Report of the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York.

Policies issued at the Holland agency, as low as by any other responsible Company.

Letters from the People.

Bad Cookery and Immortality.

To the Editor of the Detroit Tribune.

As a reader of your valuable paper, I have become increasingly interested in the agricultural contributions thereto, and having been "brought up" on a farm, and therefore conversant with farm living, have taken an especial interest in the letters of your female correspondents.

Bread-making has been so thoroughly discussed, and the process so minutely described by successful housekeepers, that one would hardly expect ever again to see or eat sour or heavy or poor bread of any kind, in households favored with THE DETROIT TRIBUNE. Yet I fear that this culinary art has not yet attained that universal perfection that will allow the subject to be dismissed as a finished lesson. Thousands of stomachs in Michigan to-day protest against the villainous compounds thrust upon them in the form of bread, or substitutes therefor; and we have noticed that housekeepers unskilled in the art of making good bread resort most frequently to its substitutes, such as warm biscuits etc., which, used habitually, destroy the national tone, and digestive powers of the stomach. Besides, a woman who has not mechanical skill enough to make perfect bread either from a definite recipe, or by being shown how, cannot make good substitutes; which are all of them more complicated, containing more ingredients, and therefore requiring more exactness to make them good; and, in lieu of which, we get salaratus biscuit, heavy and greasy cakes, soggy toast etc., as the first result; the second and more important being sallow faces, morose dispositions, dyspeptic chills; the seeds of every ill that flesh is heir to, and a craving for stimulus that ends in crimes of every grade.

What we eat has its effect upon our politics, our religion, and our intelligence.

What governs New York, and makes Tammany a possibility in the midst of its intelligence, its churches, its munificently endowed enterprises of all kinds that, in manifold ways aim to enlighten and elevate man but the gross influence of the unfed herd which never eats a decently cooked meal, but live upon garbage; animals with power to vote, and whose votes can be bought with whiskey that makes them forget the want of bread.

How can one think clearly, consecutively, or effectively, reason logically, or remember definitely, when his whole system is demoralized, and "out of sorts," by eating indigestible food? You might as well expect to run a lightning express train on time by feeding the engine with saw dust. Man is a locomotive, and if he does effective work of any kind, he must have proper nourishment.

A desponding dyspeptic cannot estimate justly his relations to his Maker, or his fellow man, and consequently cannot respond rightly to the duties corresponding to these relations. Bread has justly been termed the staff of life, for it is the main dependence for subsistence of that large class in cities who are too poor to buy meat; hence there was a great deal of Christianity in Mr. Beecher's suggestion, that we offer the poor, bread, before we proffer them the gospel; for if it be good, nutritious bread, such as will make pure blood, both head and heart can be more readily reached and influenced.

Bread is a chemical result, or compound, and what a professor in chemistry would call a successful experiment, though it is rarely regarded as other than a mechanical process by those who manufacture it, and who daily see it "rise," without ever thinking why it rises, and when it fails to "come up" call "bad luck." We cannot expect "Bridgets" to understand the correlation of chemical forces that exists in a loaf of bread; but if farmers' wives and daughters, who have studied philosophy and chemistry would think, and reason, and talk upon these facts and forces till they master the principles, they would turn their kitchens into interesting laboratories of scientific analysis and composition, where the mind as well as the body could obtain nourishment. A scientific truth is just as interesting in a kitchen as in a college lecture room; and there are a great many scientific problems solved there, that are never recognized at all as such for want of thought. We would like to call attention to some of these at some future time.

Let the bread topic be kept before the people till it is learned as perfectly as the multiplication table.

Mr. Editor, we beg pardon for writing at such length upon this subject. We intended to say only a few words, but could find no place to stop and were like the Irishman's horse that always took another step after he stopped.

The Convict's Return.

One-Third of a Century in Van Dieman's Land.

From the Syracuse (New York) Standard.

Last Wednesday night an apparently old man, he looked as if he might have been full ninety years, came to the station-house and applied for lodgings. He said he had traveled a long distance, was tired and hungry, and wanted sleep. And the old man took from his back a little bundle, withdrew a cane thrust through the knotted handkerchief, and sank down in a chair as if utterly unable to take another step. He was given the best accommodations the station house afforded, and that was a warm cell and a bare plank. But his old bones rested sweetly, he said, even in this bed. "It's more'n I've been used to for these many years." Yesterday morning he was taken before Justice Corbett, and there he told a sad story. Although appearing to be fully 90 years old, face wrinkled, and back bent nearly double, he was but 55 years of age. His name is Samuel Washburne, and he has just returned from Van Dieman's Land, whither he had been sent as a convict by the British Government. He was born in Hartford, Conn., and went to Canada when he was 22 years old. This was in the year 1838. He was engaged in chopping just across the river from Clayton, when the Canada rebellion took place in that year. Washburne was near Prescott when the battle was fought. A good many persons from this vicinity were interested in that fight, young men having gone from Selina, Liverpool, and other places in this county. One of the leaders of that rebellion was Papineau, who has a relative now living in this city. Washburne was an American, and in the vicinity of Prescott, as he says, walking along the road just after the fight, when he was arrested and thrown into chains on board a British vessel. He was given no opportunity for trial. Although he strongly protested his innocence, he was sentenced to banishment for life in Van Dieman's Land. He was sent to that colony with some two hundred others. They were crowded like sheep into the hold of a prison ship. After a tedious and stormy voyage they were landed at Sydney, and here their trials began.

Reporter—Did they make you work?
Washburne—Well, they did make us work like slaves.

R.—What did you do?
W.—I plowed and drew stone.

R.—You mean you held the plow?
W.—No I don't. I mean that myself and companion drew the plow.

They hitched us up like horses. Here see my back.

And the old man tried to straighten up, but no power on earth could ever make that back straight again. He exclaimed:

"You see my bent back. Well, they put straps across and around me: made a regular harness, and hitched Miller—that's my partner—and myself to the plow and we were obliged to drag it like brutes. But they treated us a great deal worse than brutes."

R.—What did they give you to eat?
W.—They fed us a pound of meat and a pound of coarse bread per day.

Miller, my partner, often told me he should try and escape if possible. He made the attempt and succeeded, some years ago, in reaching an American vessel that brought him to this country.

R.—How did you escape?
W.—I was pardoned. I succeeded in getting letters to Canada, and some of my friends there interested themselves in my case, and nearly two years ago I received a pardon. But then I could not leave the country for lack of means to pay my passage. I worked a year and a half, sometimes getting three cents and sometimes five cents per day, until I succeeded in raising $25. With this and promising to work on the passage, I succeeded in reaching New York a week or two ago. I left Sydney last November after a residence there thirty-three years.

R.—Have you any relatives in this part of the country?
W.—Yes; Judge Foster, of Oswego, is my uncle. My mother is his sister. I learned at Utica that two of my brothers were living at Canton (Memphis), in this country. Their names are Henry and Benjamin Washburne, and I am on my way to see them.

FERNANDO WOOD.—Fernando Wood—according to an admiring Washington correspondent—is "the completest gentleman in the House of Representatives, judged by his manners." Furthermore, that "he never gets his feet higher than his head, nor smokes, neither loafs nor lounges; is industrious, and shows his good breeding even in the way he writes, to say nothing of his courtesies of manner in regard to others; is tall, straight, wears his black frock coat buttoned in front, encases his neck in a standing collar, and has an air of general fastidiousness. His hair is gray, his eyes small, his nose large, while at its base lies a stretch of white moustache, looking like a snowdrift." All of which is worth several dollars a line for even an insertion.

Northern Michigan A. & M. Society.

The following resolutions were adopted at the recent meeting of Directors at Pontiac:

WHEREAS, A communication has been received from the State Pomological Society calling our attention to the fact that the State Agricultural Society has adopted to same week for its fair as that adopted by us for the Union Fair at Grand Rapids, and

WHEREAS, It has been asserted by the President at the State Agricultural Society and reiterated by the Secretary through the Michigan Farmer, that the time adopted by the Northern Michigan Agricultural and Mechanical Society and the State Pomological Society for holding the Union Fair, viz: the 10th day of September, 1872, and five following days, occurs on the same "week" on which this [the State Agricultural Society] had held its fair nine out of the last ten years; and

WHEREAS, This statement is calculated to produce the impression that it was the object of this Society to interfere with the State Fair, and thereby detract from its usefulness; and

WHEREAS, This view has been extensively promulgated with an evident intention of injuring the Northern Michigan Agricultural and Mechanical Society; and

WHEREAS, This Society, not wishing to occupy the time the State Society would claim, carefully selected the week for holding its fair with due regard to that most likely to be selected by the State Agricultural Society; and

WHEREAS, The fourth week in September, being the one most usually selected by the State Society, was considered by this Board as the best week, but regarding it as belonging to the State Society we yield our preferences solely to avoid any conflicting circumstances calculated to detract from the success of either Fair; and it was our intention to attend the Fair of the State Agricultural Society, and our desire that the officers of the State Society should attend the Union Fair, as shown by resolutions inviting them to do so, passed at the meeting of this Board, held in the city of Grand Rapids in January last; and

WHEREAS, On the 10th day of January last the Board adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the Fair of 1872 be held on the third Monday, the 16th day of September, 1872, and five following days.

AND WHEREAS, This fact was published in the Michigan Farmer, and other newspapers of the State Agricultural Society at its February meeting, when the same week was adopted for its Fair, therefore.

Resolved by the Board of Directors of the Northern Michigan A. & M. Society.
