GRANT, THE UNRELENTLESS AND UNFORGIVING.

We frankly confess that human nature at the best is weak and erring, and in proportion to the various phases which it presents so are the number of marked cases, especially when the temptations of office, forage from the public crib, and in addition thereto, as our facetious friend, Dr. O'Toole, would have said, "the run of the kitchen," are held out as the rewards for throwing overboard every principle of truth, justice and fair play, and wilfully shutting their eyes to the antecedents of the party offering such alluring baits. All these, Greeley has promised his supporters, and notably, to his Democratic ones.

Under Greeley's training the Democrats, influenced solely by the prospective plunder which they expect to share by robbing the people of their rights and privileges, are still "howling" round the stump that Grant was the opponent of general amnesty, and they not him, were the first to move for the re-enfranchisement of those who had been engaged in the recent attempt to overthrow the Union. This they well know is a vindictive and scandalous misrepresentation, inasmuch as they, as well as ourselves, are in possession of published evidence that Grant in his 1870 message to Congress, said: "More than six years have elapsed since the last hostile gun was fired between the armies then arrayed against each other, one for the preservation, the other for the destruction, of the Union, it may well be considered whether the disabilities imposed by the fourteenth amendment should be removed." He then proceeds to state his reasons for presenting so magnanimous a proposition for the consideration of Congress.

Is it not therefore perfectly plain to the most ordinary capacity and understanding that falsehood well burnished so as to seem like truth to the unwary and unsuspicious, is one of the chief features of Greeley's mosaic form and party?

The Democrats, also, true to their native instinct for vilification, still shout from the stump, and which is of course re-echoed by their press, that Grant is "relentless and unforgiving," and prefers the smoke of battle to that of the busy rivers of life and industry. Was there ever so monstrous a falsehood? Is it possible for reckless and unscrupulous assertion to go further? We unhesitatingly say not. Let us just look at the grounds for such conduct. When Lee surrendered his sword, Grant said, "Tell the boys that they can take their horses home with them to help them make their crops." And when it was contemplated, under Johnson to try Lee and his fellow officers for treason, Grant said, "General Lee and his officers and troops who have been duly paroled, cannot be arrested and tried for treason. I protest against their arrest." Republicans, this is what your opponents make the basis of their charge against your representative of being "relentless and unforgiving." Lost to all sense of shame, and finding their cause looks unmistakably bad, they are bent on the old game of "root hog or die."

In painful contrast to Grant's magnanimity, we have Greeley's angelic wish in May, 1861—worthy of having a cherub for its author—"When the rebellious traitors," said he, "are scattered like leaves before an angry wind, it must not be to return to peaceful and contented homes. They must find poverty at their fireside, and see privation in the anxious eyes of mothers and the rags of the children."

And the author of this wish, breathing as it does, the intensity of his relentless and unforgiving nature, has the cool hardihood and audacity to ask the votes of the American people, in order to place himself in the Presidential chair. If they wish to hasten the fall of their great country from its firm and proud pre-eminence over all the nations of the earth, if they are prepared to throw away patriotism and their manhood with one hand, and in return therefor, accept official plunder with the other, then let them

VOTE FOR GREELEY.

but if they wish to see their loved land progress at its present rate of unprecedented prosperity—if they wish the great, the good, and the patriotic to handle the reins of government, with an eye single to their own interests—and if they wish to be acknowledged as the only true source of power, and to have a policy on all subjects put before them for their recommendations, none to enforce against their will, then

VOTE FOR GRANT.

OUR BANKING SYSTEM.

Before the war we had no banking system that could be relied upon. Our State banks were insecure—in some sections worthless. Hundreds of men have been ruined by the failure of these banks. There was no reliable security for deposits or circulation to rest upon. The bills of one State were looked upon with suspicion by the people of other States. In some States, State money issued outside of their own limits could not be passed except on heavy discount. Every business man was forced to have a bank note detector at his elbow, and even with this precaution, counterfeit or broken bank notes would be imposed upon him.

The adoption of our present national bank system gave to the people the required remedy. State banks went out of existence or were transformed into national banks. Every State had a circulating medium of certain value. The notes were alike throughout the nation. People became familiar with the appearance of the bills, and counterfeiting became almost impossible. Aside from this the Government had a force of detectives looking after the counterfeiters, and their work became too dangerous and unprofitable to continue in. The circulation of every bank was secured by United States bonds, so that the bills of a broken bank have their original value when sent in for redemption. For this perfect system the people are indebted to the Republican party. It was opposed by the Democrats.

The policy of the Democratic party has been, and is now, against the system. It favors a return to the old State bank system, and if permitted to come into power will carry out its scheme of changing our present banking policy.

In order to show how perfect our national bank system has worked, we give the following statement, taken from an official report on the subject: "The average constant amount of deposits in the national banks during the period of three years from June 1, 1869, to June 1, 1872, is about $600,000,000. The estimated losses to depositors has been less than 1-200 of one per cent, or about $5 in $100,000."

The losses from all the banks in the country under the new system have been less than from a single State under the old.

The question for the people to answer is, do they desire to defat the party who uphold the credit of the nation? Do they desire to place in power a party that is pledged to do away with a system that has proven so beneficial to the whole country? If they do, let them vote for Horace Greeley; if they do not, let them go to work earnestly to elect the man who represents the financial interests of the nation. Our bonds increased largely in value on the election of General Grant. A still larger increase of value will follow his re-election.

CONSOLIDATION.—The meeting of the stockholders of the C. & M. L. S. R. R. Co., and that of the Muskegon and Big Rapids Railroad Co., agreed on the 15th inst. at Muskegon to consolidate, and the two companies are now under the corporate name of the Chicago and Michigan Lake Shore Railroad Company. The following gentlemen were elected directors: James F. Joy; A. H. Morrison; C. Davis; S. R. Sanford; L. G. Mason; D. L. Filer; M. L. Sweet; G. Godfrey and Geo. H. White. Mr. Joy was subsequently elected President; Mr. Morrison Vice President and General Manager; Isaac Livermore Treasurer and J. M. Barnes Secretary. On the first of January next, this corporation will have over 250 miles of railroad in successful operation, with 25 engines, 500 flat cars, 300 box cars, and all the necessary passenger and other coaches, all accomplished within a period of three years.—St. Jo. Herald.

FINANCIAL RESULTS OF RECONSTRUCTION.

We commend the following extract from the able speech of Hon. Job E. Stevenson, on the "Ku-Klux Conspiracy" to all who doubt the wisdom of the reconstruction acts. It adds another proof to what has been claimed, that the Republican party has done more toward restoring peace and prosperity to the South than the Democracy could have done in half a century. All that the South now needs is to shake itself loose from those political demagogues who seek personal advancement out of her misfortunes. They have proved themselves false in the past; they are unworthy to be trusted in the future. Infuse the spirit of progress in the Southern States, afford protection to the growing Union element, and self-interest will impel them to shun the Democratic party. Mr. Stevenson, after referring to the cost of the rebellion to the South, said:

What has been the financial results of reconstruction? The Government and the people of the North forgave so the people of the South and caused them to repudiate debts amounting to more than twenty-five hundred million dollars. We relieved them by constitutional amendments, and by the generosity of our people, of debts nearly double the property their own crimes had left. If the Government and the people of the North had merely withheld their hands from the South, and left the conquered rebels to their own financial devices, the South would have sunk in bankruptcy and ruin as a man thrown into the sea with a millstone at his neck. The Government and people of the North rescued them, fed them, advanced money and property, restored peace and order, and gave them the opportunity to revive their fortunes.

"The white people of the South continually upbraid the colored people, saying: 'The negro will not work.' Yet wherever you go you see scores of white men lounging on the piazzas of the hotels, shifting their chairs to keep out of the sun, moving only to get refreshments, while freedmen are laboring in the fields earning money to enable the whites to lounge. The laborers of the South have produced in cotton and other agricultural products since the war nearly $4,000,000,000, more than double the value of property in 1865. And the people have saved so much of these gains, that they had in 1870 $2,700,000,000 against $1,800,000,000 at the end of the war, having increased their property since the war over $1,100,000. And they had in 1870, $6,000,000 more than their State assessments in 1860, excluding slaves. That is the financial result of reconstruction.

"If economical considerations moved the hearts of Southern men they would be infinitely grateful to the Government and the people of the North for their forbearance and generosity, and equally grateful for reconstruction, which has placed the South on the highway of prosperity. But they care not for money. They think more of their freed slaves than of their recovered estates; more of their humbled pride than of their restored liberties; of the lost cause than of the preserved Union."

What Ails the Horses.

In view of the prevalence of the "horse disease," in various parts of Canada, New York and New England, and the likelihood of its appearance among the animals of Michigan, the following, from a Toronto paper, giving the symptoms of the disease, and the proper mode of treatment, is well worth attention:

"The disease appears to be a catarrhal fever, of an epizootic nature, the result of some atmospheric influence, as is shown by its sudden appearance over a large extent of country, attacking all kinds of horses, old and young, in good condition or poor. The preliminary symptoms are dullness, a staring coat, a watery discharge from the nose, speedily followed by a severe hacking cough; the pulse is quickened, and the mouth hot, the nasal membranes are inflamed, and the ears and legs are unnaturally cold, the discharge from the nose increases and becomes of a greenish yellow color, and the breathing is increased, and in some cases labored and severe. Although this disease must necessarily prove a great loss and annoyance to the community generally, we do not think it is likely to be of a fatal character where ordinary care and rational treatment are adopted. In several instances the attack has been severe, but generally increased by overwork, or some other debilitating influence. As the disease will run a certain course, effected animals should be carefully used, and allowed plenty of pure air, with a liberal diet of nourishing and easily digested food. The stable should be well aired daily and thoroughly ventilated; and it is also advisable to use disinfectants, as chloride of lime or carbolic acid. When the throat is very sore, causing a difficulty in swallowing, a mild embrocation should be applied, and the fever allayed by mild febrifuge medicine.

This old advertisement is from an Eastern paper, and has its parallel here: "My husband is out on a strike. He prefers that to work. He is of no use to his family. I must work to keep the children and self. His earnings go to beer and whiskey. I'll swap my husband while he's on a strike for a sewing machine."

Local News.

Hon. Schuyler Colfax, Vice President of the United States, will speak at Grand Rapids on the 30th, next Wednesday.

The bridge crossing Tanneys Creek, on 12th street, will soon be ready for use. Contractor Van Haaften is pushing the work vigorously.

Capt. Van Loo, candidate for Register, spoke to a large audience of Hollanders on Thursday evening last. Those who understood the language, speak of the effort as very able, reflecting much credit on the speaker.

The grading of Ninth street is completed; the hill in front of Dr. Lodeboer's residence is removed, and the doctor is now busy making permanent improvements in front of his dwelling, as is also Prof. Beck.

We wonder why the Grandeur, in its article upon "county nominations," failed to notify its readers of the nomination of Henry S. Clubb, for State Senator. The agreement was that he should pull true this campaign. Why omit to mention the most important candidate on the ticket? Out with it.

We learn that Mr. Harm Smit, one of the oldest settlers of this colony, died very suddenly on board the Holland train, near Monteth, on Wednesday last. Mr. Smit was nearly 80 years old and had this season been to the Netherlands on a visit, with his wife, and had so far returned, when death overtook him.

A great effort is being made to defect Mr. A. Woltman, the Republican nominee for Sheriff, by claiming that he is not educated in the English language. We hope no unfair means will be used to defeat him. To our Republican friends throughout the county we would urge that extra efforts be made to counteract any impression made by such assertions. Mr. Woltman is one of our most respected Holland citizens, a man of honest intentions, quick perception, with ability, and energy; in the prime of life, healthy and vigorous, will make a good officer, he possesses in a marked degree, many characteristics which will make him one of the most thorough and popular Sheriffs that Ottawa county has ever had; Republicans should pay no heed to the shallow charges of incompetency but vote for Mr. Woltman and the whole Republican ticket.

The new firm of Bakker & Van Raalte moved into their large new brick store last week, where they propose to carry on the manufacture of Boots and Shoes. Mr. Bakker has been in trade here for some years, and has established for himself, by a system of dealing, a reputation for selling a good article at moderate cost, second to none in the city, and to meet the increasing demands of his patrons, he finds it necessary to largely increase his stock and facilities for manufacturing.
Mr. D. B. K. Van Raalte having an eye for business and a desire to promote the manufacturing interest of this city, has consented to supply the demand, and we may confidently look forward to the dawning of a new era in the manufacture of Boots and Shoes in this city. It is the intention of this firm to introduce new machinery into their manufactory at an early day, and to fully keep pace with the march of improvement. They will also in connection with their goods of their own manufacture keep a complete stock of Eastern made work, at their new store, Central Block, Eighth St.

Correspondence.

Jamestown, Oct. 25th, 1872.

On Saturday the 19th inst., the Republicans of Jamestown met at the center, and raised a fine looking pole, having at its top a neat flag inscribed with the names of Grant & Wilson.
In the evening the center school-house was filled to overflowing by an audience expecting to listen to Republican speakers, but being disappointed in this they were addressed by Mr. N. B.
Wallace, who spoke to them from a Democratic stand-point. Mr. Wallace stated that he had been a life-long Democrat, gave good and sufficient reasons why he did not endorse the Baltimore swindle, discussed the situation fully and fairly, and urged every honest Democrat to cast his vote for the candidates of true reform, Grant and Wilson. Quite a number of Democrats were present, several of whom have since repudiated the coalition.
Such enthusiasm prevailed, and there is no doubt that, on the 5th of November, Jamestown will harvest for the philosopher, a large crop of political "Beats."

"COMING EVENTS CAST THEIR SHAD-OWS BEFORE."—The advance agent of the world-renowned Alleghenians, Vocalists and Swiss Bell Ringers, brings us the glorious news that this popular troupe will appear at Lawrence Hall, Monday evening, Oct. 28. We know of no troupe so deservedly meritorious as "these wonderful children of song," and having added a newly reconstructed programme, with New Songs, New Duets, New Bell Pieces, and presenting New Faces, cannot fail to have an overflowing house. During their great tour around the globe, the concerts of the Alleghenians were honored by the attendance of hundreds of thousands of delighted listeners—Kings, Queens, Nobles, and the most distinguished men of the age patronized their entertainments, and lavished upon them the most flattering demonstrations of approval. The Bells used by the Alleghenians were manufactured in Switzerland, expressly for them, during their late visit to Europe.

OUR REPRESENTATIVE IN CONGRESS.
—The voters of the Lake Shore region should be particularly desirous of electing Representatives to represent them in Congress, as well as to secure a Republican President. Under the old Democratic rule, the idea of improving our rivers and harbors was ridiculed; no appropriations of public funds could we secure to aid us in opening up channels that would expedite and cheapen transportation. Our early settlers well remember that repeated refusals were made when the general government was requested to appropriate a small sum to aid a struggling colony in their almost desperate efforts to make a harbor at this place.
As with this place, so with all others in like situation; Democratic supremacy had no sympathy with us in our efforts to make a harbor and increase commerce. Hence, for many years the large amount of capital invested in vessels and the lives of those who worked them, were almost daily sacrificed while Democratic policy withheld its support. Citizens of Holland, these are facts, which need only be mentioned as a reminder of Democratic folly.
Now, how does the record read? As soon as the Republican party could do so, after the war, they established a system of internal improvements, whereby rivers and harbors were made navigable, light-houses were built, and collection districts organized. Life and property was a consideration not to be ignored, and the general welfare of the people a prominent object to secure. However well the party of progress has executed our desire, in this respect the work is not done, our interests require a continuation of the same policy, and we should be loth to use our influence or votes to change it. If you vote for a Democratic President and congressmen—taking party history as precedent—you vote to stop all internal improvements, to shut up the mouths of our rivers or leave our harbors but half completed, a system of internal improvements which we believe the country requires and our interests demand. Let us see then that our candidate for congress through whom all these favors must come, receives such a support as a generous public should give. See to it the name of Wilder D. Foster our honored Representative is on every ticket polled in this city, as a just tribute for his energy in securing for us valuable appropriation for internal improvements.

Mr. Foster has proved a worthy successor of Hon. T. W. Ferry in watching the interests of his constituents, and we hope to be able to record his vote this fall as the largest ever given for Representative in Congress.

INSURE WITH THE OLD

"North America"

INS. Co. OF PHILADELPHIA, PA.

(ESTABLISHED 1794.)

Why? Because it is the oldest Ins. Co. in the United States.

Because it was the first to pay its Holland losses in Ready Cash.

Because it has paid over $20,000,000 losses.

Because it has a surplus over and above its debts of more than any two Ins. Co's. in the United States.

Because it has a surplus of more than five times that of all the other Ins. Co's. in the city combined.

For proof, read the (Jan. 1872) Report of the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York.

Policies issued at the Holland agency, as low as by any other responsible Company.

Do not waste your money with worthless insurance but insure with the old
