Biography

Laura Alice Boyd was born in Clarence, Iowa, on October 3, 1884. She graduated from high school in 1902 in Red Oak, Iowa. Boyd received her B.A. degree from Tarkio College (1906) and her M.A. degree from Missouri State University (1907). From 1908-1910, Boyd taught public school in Idaho. She returned home in 1910 to care for her ailing mother until 1916, when she accepted a teaching position at Sterling College in Kansas.

In 1921, she began teaching at Hope College as instructor of German. Boyd became a full professor of German in 1929; she remained at Hope College until her retirement in 1955. While at Hope, Boyd helped to establish the German Club and the Palette and Masque theater group.

Following her retirement, Boyd moved to Massachusetts to live with long time friend and former student Eva Van Schaak. She returned to Holland when Miss Van Schaak accepted a teaching position at Hope College in 1956.

Laura Alice Boyd died on November 25, 1962, at the University Hospital in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Scope and Content
