New York City

A letter of Thomas De Witt, a pastor in the Collegiate Church to a Rev. Elias Heiner of Baltimore "per Rev. H. P. Scholte" [which may account for the fact that the letter stayed in Pella], to whom DeWitt commends Scholte and the need of his people. "The expected emigrants from Holland" are coming into the Baltimore harbor, I assume.

Dear Sir I wrote you a short time since in reference to expected emigrants from Holland and referred to the Rev. H.
P. Scholtz of Meecht, who takes a lead in the proposed settlement in the west mainly of persons attached to the faith of the Reformed Church. I have now the pleasure of introducing you the Rev.
W. Scholtz the bearer of this, who arrived by the last Boston Steamer, I commend him as worthy of your Christian Confidence.
He will explain to you more fully than

Yours in Christian love

Thomas De Witt
