

Hope College

Hope College Digital Commons

Van Raalte Papers: 1870-1879

Van Raalte Papers

10-7-1876

It Was Reported in the Holland City News, p. 5, That "Dr. Van Raalte Still Remains a Sufferer, and Apparently Gradually Declining"

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.hope.edu/vrp_1870s

The original documents are held in The Joint Archives of Holland. This digitized material is intended for personal research/study only. The original documents may not be reproduced for commercial use in any form or by any means, electronic or mechanical, without permission in writing from The Joint Archives of Holland.

Recommended Citation

"It Was Reported in the Holland City News, p. 5, That "Dr. Van Raalte Still Remains a Sufferer, and Apparently Gradually Declining"" (1876). Van Raalte Papers: 1870-1879. 273. https://digitalcommons.hope.edu/vrp_1870s/273

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Van Raalte Papers at Hope College Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Van Raalte Papers: 1870-1879 by an authorized administrator of Hope College Digital Commons. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@hope.edu.

October 7, 1876

It was reported in the Holland City News, p. 5, that "Dr. Van Raalte still remains a sufferer, and apparently gradually declining."

The archives of Hope College, Joint Archives of Holland.

Holland City News Oct. 7, 1876

5th page

Notings.

HAVE you paid for your paper?

FIVE weeks more and all the campaign agonies will be over.

DON'T fail to read what Dr. Aikin has to tell a suffering people.

THE Penobscot Indians, to the number of 800, are attending the Centennial.

DR. Van Raalte still remains a sufferer, and apparently gradually declining.

THE hum of the pensive mosquito is becoming more and more faint nightly.

REV. J. De Spelder is in town to attend the fall session of the Classis of Michigan.

THE schooner Kate Howard is being hauled out at Anderson's ship yard to be calked.

BUSINESS was livelier this week in Grand Rapids than we have seen it for four months.

THE Rev. Henry Ward Beecher's lectures in Canada have been given before immense audiences.

THE Democrats held a meeting on Friday evening of last week and were addressed by G. Van Schelven, Esq.

MR. Nathan Albee was seriously injured under a tree at Pigeon Creek yesterday. We did not learn any particulars

THE farmers have got thin in wheat.

THE weather during the week has been cold and stormy.

HARRISON county, Tex. is now as a tobacco growing section.

CAPT. Upham will rebuild Shiver next winter in Saugatuck.

THE outlook for the fall trade at Quincy, Ill., is encouraging.

THOSE of our subscribers who pay us in wood will please

CARL Schurz passed last night Governor Hayes at his house in Ohio.

GEORGE and Paul Steketee start their Centennial tour on Tuesday for Grand Rapids.

THE Allen steamship, Capt. Allen, has been wrecked, but the crew and passengers were saved.

THE Republicans held a meeting on Wednesday evening last and were addressed by E. Smits, Esq.

REV. Wm. M. Copelin, formerly of Buchanan, Mich., has arrived in Holland in charge of the M. E. Church.

THE schooner J. L. Higginson is chartered to take deals from Grand Rapids, Mich., to Quebec for $2000 per month.

stock
le, go

RS,

etc

TH

and
and who

at 9

10
10