Dear Elton,

In going through some Dutch materials that I will be working on translating as part of my class with Dr. deHaan, I found something which may be of interest to you. Inside of the cover of the pamphlet is written in pencil (clearly but fading) A van Raalte, 1854. Thus, I have every reason to believe it belonged to him. The title translates to: Example of the Religious Truths for Simpletons, for preparation in the Confession of Faith. This was found in the Adrienne Vander Hill collection, W88-115a, which has not yet been processed. Geoffrey said you may like to know of its existence.

Sincerely,

-Michael Douma

P.S. I was glad to see that the new Van Raalte is out.
