History

Nykerk Cup Competitions were begun in 1936 by Dr. John B. Nykerk, professor of literary arts at Hope College. The annual competition features a rivalry between the even and odd-year classes of Hope, in which the freshman and sophomore women compete against each other in song, oration, and drama. Men are involved as moralers for their respective classes, and upperclassmen participate as coaches, both for the women and the moralers. Each fall, the women compete for the prized Nykerk Cup.

Scope and Content

The Nykerk Cup Competition collection includes programs, musical scores, photographs, clippings, slides, videotapes, CDs, DVDs, speeches, and drama scripts, all oration, play, and song information for the annual competition.
