A notice in the Grand Rapids Daily Eagle, p. 3, that "We understand, that a large portion of the Holland congregation, worshipping in the Brick Church, on Bostwick street, have withdrawn from the congregation, owing to some misunderstanding as to points of Church government." The seceders under the leadership of Rev. Klijn, held services in Collins Hall yesterday. "Rev. Mr. Van Raalte, of the Colony, officiated in the old church, yesterday.

upon themselves that solemn and benevolent duty. Be that as it may, the careful observer of the market can discern an improvement in the manner of loading sleighs so as not to have more than one-half crooked sticks, and two-thirds of the remainder, limbs. We are cognizant of the fact that one "old covey," who has been in the habit of disposing of three-quarters for a cord, and swearing to the contents most lustily if questioned, has refrained from selling by the single load, and now contracts for five cords at a time. Buyers will see that they get over four and a quarter, and they had better test all contracts by a four foot stick, which it is not at all difficult to do.

✂ We understand, that a large portion of the Holland congregation, worshipping in the Brick Church, on Bostwick street, have withdrawn from the organization, owing to some misunderstanding as to points of Church government. The seceders under the ministrations of Rev. Mr. KLYN, held services in Collins Hall, yesterday, and a very large attendance was present. Mr. KLYN, has been very popular with the Hollanders generally, and we regret, exceedingly to hear of any dissensions amongst them, or any other denomination. The points of disagreement we are not fully advised of. Rev. Mr. VAN RAALTE, of the Colony, officiated in the old church, yesterday.

✂ A very fair audience, as to numbers was present last evening at the Methodist Church, on Division street, to hear the first of a series of lectures by the Pastor, Rev. Mr. BORTON, on the "Divinity of Christ." The lecture was written, and had the great and pungent merit of brevity, which we apprehend is as much the soul of sermons as of
