Biography

Jean Nienhuis was born in May 1887 in the area of North Holland, north of the city of Holland, Michigan. Her home was the Cloverdale Farm on Route 2, Holland, owned by P. M. Nienhuis & Sons. She was a member of the North Holland Reformed Church. Nienhuis graduated from Hope College Preparatory School in 1902 and received her nursing degree from Blodgett Nursing School in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Nienhuis went to Amoy, China, in 1920 and organized the Nurses Training School at Hope and Wilhelmina Hospitals at Kulangsu, Amoy, China, for the Reformed Church in America (RCA). She served there until 1952. In her later years, Nienhuis served many Detroit area churches in visitations.

Jean Nienhuis died on April 3, 1975, at the Haven Park Nursing Home in Holland, Michigan, at the age of eighty-seven.

Scope and Content

The collection consists primarily of photograph albums, beginning with Nienhuis as a young girl and student, then five albums of photographs from her years in China (1920-1935), as well as separate folders of photographs. There is some correspondence and many notebooks on scripture passages and speeches she gave. The collection is arranged alphabetically.
