REMARKS, IN CONNECTION WITH THE THEOLOGICAL COURSE.

In June, 1866, the General Synod, R. P. D. C., received a memorial from the seven members of the first graduating class of Hope College; who had in view the Gospel ministry, petitioning the Synod to take such measures as might enable them to pursue their theological course at Hope College.

The Synod granted the request, with the proviso that the arrangement should not, at that time, involve any increased expenditures—that it should remain in the power of the Synod to revoke the permission at any time—and that a committee should visit the field with implied directions to examine the theological basis. They also instructed the Board of Education and the Council of Hope College to institute some method for carrying their purpose into effect.

Accordingly, during the first Commencement week, said Bodies assigned the various branches of the Junior Theological year as follows:

To Prof. PHELPS, Sacred Exegesis and Rhetoric; to Prof. OGDEL, Introduction to Sacred Scripture; to Prof. BECK, Hebrew and Greek Languages; to Prof. SCOTT, Chronology and Ancient Sacred History; to Prof. CRISPELL, Sacred Archæology and Confession of Faith.

THEOLOGICAL TEXT-BOOKS.

The following Text-Books are in use during the first theological year, viz: Green's Hebrew Grammar, McClelland's Hebrew Manual, Gesenius' Hebrew Lexicon, Robinson's Greek Harmony, Robinson's Greek Lexicon, Horne's Introduction to Sacred Scripture, Angus' Hand-Book of the Bible, McClelland's Manual of Biblical Interpretation, Ripley's Sacred Rhetoric, Claude's Essay, Miller's Clerical Manners and Habits, Kurtz's Ancient Sacred History, Jahn's Archæology, Confession of Faith, R. ADMISSION.

For admission into the Freshman Class, an examination in the following studies, is required, viz.:

LATIN.

Latin Grammar — Andrews and Stoddard, or Zumpt, or Bullions.

Latin Prosody.

Arnold's Latin Prose Composition, to "Apposition."

Cæsar's Commentaries.

Cicero's Orations against Cataline.

Virgil's Æneid.

GREEK.

Greek Grammar — Crosby or Hadley, or Bullions.

(The last with special reference to Rules of Euphony and Analysis of Greek verb.)

Greek Reader — Jacobs or Bullions.

Xenophon's Anabasis.

MATHEMATICS.

Arithmetic complete — Davies' University, or an equivalent.

Algebra — through equations of the first degree.

ADDITIONAL.

English Grammar.

Modern Geography.

History of the United States.

TIME OF ADMISSION.

The regular times for the examination of candidates for admission, will occur immediately after the annual Commencement, and at the opening of the study-year.

But students will be received at other times, provided that they are able to go on with the class, from that stage of progress which it may have attained.

ELEMENTARY KNOWLEDGE.

The examination will be directed with special reference to preparation in grammatical and elementary knowledge; and in the translations, with more regard for the quality than the quantity.

ADVANCED STANDING.

Candidates for advanced standing will be examined, in addition to the preparatory studies, in those previously pursued by the classes which they propose to enter.

PARTIAL COURSE.

A partial course may be taken by those who desire it, in harmony with the complete course, if that arrangement be made at the time of their admission; but such shall, at the end, receive a simple certificate in lieu of the usual diploma.

CREDENTIALS.

Every candidate for admission must be provided with credentials as to his character, habits and scholarship, from his last Instructor, or from the last Institution with which he may have been connected.

PROBATION.

New students remain on probation, during at least one term, at the expiration of which, if their course prove satisfactory, they are admitted to matriculation.

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION.

TERMS AND VACATIONS.

For the present year, the terms and vacations will be regulated in accordance with the calendar on page 24. They will be somewhat varied afterwards.

EXAMINATIONS.

Immediately before the annual Commencement, there is a public examination of all the classes under the supervision of the Council and the State Board of Visitors.

EXPENSES.

The price of tuition is twelve dollars per term, but it is subject to a system of exemptions arising from the growth of the Institution through benevolent contributions, and adapted to the needs of the deserving.

A fee of four dollars per term is laid to cover all contingent expenses. No fee on admission, is required, nor are any extra charges levied. The graduation fee is five dollars.

The gratuitous use of rooms in the building, is continued; but in the assigning of them, preferences are made according to the object sought in study.

Good board may be obtained at the general boarding hall of the Institution, or elsewhere, at prices ranging from $2.50 to $3.50 per week.

BENEFICIARY HELP.

No youth desirous of receiving an education, yet not having the means to meet the expense, will be turned from the doors of the Institution on that account; but friendly aid can always be found for such as are worthy.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

A system of honorary and other scholarships has been inaugurated, the object of which is not only to exempt from tuition fees, but also to set Church beneficiary aid in the proper light, and render it a means for awakening a proper sense of self-respect, rather than a depressing sense of dependence.

INCENTIVES.

Instead of the ordinary method of prizes, incentives to progress are furnished by positions on the Honorary and Classical scholarships just mentioned.

LIBRARY AND APPARATUS.

There is the nucleus of a library, and the foundation of scientific apparatus.

VOCAL MUSIC.

Gratuitous instruction in vocal music is regularly given to all interested. This has long been a source of benefit and recreation to the students.

GYMNASIUM.

The Gymnasium is used during Commencement week, for public exercises. At other times, the students have opportunity to introduce various calisthenic arrangements.

PRINTING HOUSE.

This is used at present for De Hope. It needs important additions to its facilities, and donations are earnestly solicited.

FELLOWSHIP.

The Fraternal Society furnishes the means of social, mental and moral improvement to those admitted into its fellowship.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

A strict conformity to all the regulations of the Institution, is expected of every student. The method of government pursued is not to depend on mere restraints, but to induce habits of self-control.

PUBLICATION DEPARTMENT.

THE SEARCHER

Is intended as an aid and incentive to the critical and practical investigation and illustration of the Sacred Scriptures, especially the more obscure and difficult portions—to which purpose it is exclusively devoted.

As soon as the pressure of other unavoidable work is removed, so that the successive monthly numbers can be issued regularly, the fourth number of the first volume may be expected.

DE HOPE,

Which is the name of the Hollandish organ of the Institution, a weekly religious newspaper, under the editorial supervision of Prof. OGGEL, has successfully completed its first year, and begins the second, with an increasing circulation.

HOPE COLLEGE REMEMBRANCE

Is the title of a new annual emanating from the Institution, and designed for the memorial preservation of Hope College Commencement Literature.

With the exception of the first or Inaugural number, it is not published, but is printed for private and gratuitous distribution.

PREPARATORY COURSE.

SUPERVISION AND INSTRUCTION.

The intimate relation of the PREPARATORY or GRAMMAR SCHOOL DEPARTMENT, to the College, arising from the history of the Institution, still continues.

In the Articles of Association for incorporation, it is specified that the Grammar School shall remain a permanent part of the Institution, under the supervision of the Council.

The Faculty direct the instruction of the Preparatory Classes, in which they are assisted by the following Tutors. Mr. GILMORE is also the instructor and leader of the College choir.

DISTRIBUTION OF STUDIES.

The Academic week is divided as follows: Monday and Wednesday are Latin days; Tuesday and Thursday are Greek days; Friday is Rhetoric day.

The studies other than Latin, Greek and Rhetoric, are distributed between the Latin and Greek days, so that too many may not occur on the same day. The Rhetoric day is devoted to various exercises in elocution and composition, to orthography and reviews.

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION.

TERMS AND VACATIONS. These, for the present year, are the same as those of the College, and appear on page 24.

DAILY SESSIONS. The hours of recitation are from twenty minutes past 8 A. M. until 12 M.

All the Academic and Collegiate students attend social worship at 8 A. M.; and those who reside in the building, at half-past 9 P. M., also.

The pupils of the Academy are not compelled to sit under the eye of a teacher, but are permitted to study in different rooms assigned them. Those who, after a reasonable time, cannot or will not acquire sufficient self-government to do so, are not suffered to remain.

EXAMINATIONS. There is an annual examination, for the date of which, see the Calendar.

EXPENSES. Four dollars per term are required from each student for contingent expenses. Beyond this, no charges have yet been established.

The gratuitous use of rooms is allowed to pupils, but preference is given according to intentions in studying.

BENEFICIARY AID. To those who give sufficient promise of usefulness, but have not the means of supporting themselves, there are arrangements to afford suitable assistance.

VOCAL MUSIC. There are the same advantages in this respect to all the students.

GYMNASIUM. This is open to all, for the regular exercises.

FELLOWSHIP. The Meliphon Society, established in 1857, has been a source of much satisfaction to its members. It is conducted for social and literary improvement.

GENERAL REGULATIONS. Rules are as few and simple as practicable. The students are expected to deport themselves with that propriety which a due regard for the wishes of their teachers would dictate, and their own self-respect enforce. They are taught to govern themselves.
