Biography

Albertus Pieters was born February 5, 1869, at Alto, Wisconsin. His parents were Rev. and Mrs. Reolf Pieters. He graduated from Hope College in 1887 with an A.B. degree and 1890 with an A.M. degree.

In 1891, he graduated from Western Theological Seminary with a D.D. degree and was ordained a Christian minister and commissioned a missionary. In 1891, he married Emma Kollen before leaving for their missionary assignment in Japan and served there until 1923. While in service, he inaugurated the program Newspaper Evangelism and served as vice-president of the General Synod in 1911.

Upon his return to the United States, he taught at Hope College in their Bible Department from 1923-1926. He was named as Dosker-Hulswit Professor of English Bible and Missions at Western Theological Seminary in 1926 and taught there until 1939.

Pieters passed away in Holland, Michigan, on December 24, 1955.
