Biography

Anna Martha Elenbaas was born in December 1900. She attended Zeeland High School and later graduated from Hope College in 1925, where she was a member of the Dorian Society.

After graduation, she then went to Winnebago Mission, Nebraska, to serve for fifteen years as a missionary. Elenbaas married Rev. Erend Ketting, a mail-order pastor at the time. He was later the minister of St. Joe Baptist Church in Homer, Michigan, for thirty years. Anna taught in Jonesville, Michigan, for nine and a half years.

Anna Ketting passed away on November 4, 1992, in Holland, Michigan, at the age of 91.

Scope and Content

The collection consists of correspondence, materials from the sixtieth reunion of her Hope College graduating class, programs and publications from Hope College, some materials relating to her mission work, and valentines. Also included in the collection is a memory book containing memorabilia from Anna Elenbaas's social activities and Dorian Society membership. The memory book also contains some photographs, most unidentified, of Hope College students and faculty.
